

The Liturgical Order of Services for the year of the Incarnate Lord 2010

The Liturgical Day in the Orthodox Church begins in the Evening, and its arrival is announced by the service of Vespers, which is the service that liturgically brings one day to a close and inaugurates the next. For example, Great Vespers served on Saturday night is the evening prayer service for the Lord's Day and thus is liturgically Sunday's first service. Vespers is celebrated in three basic forms: Great Vespers, Daily Vespers, and Small (Little) Vespers. Great Vespers may be served in three different forms as mentioned below: By itself, at a Vigil, and on appointed days combined with Liturgy.

Great Vespers is appointed to be served on the Eve of Sunday (i.e. Saturday night) and on the eves of all feasts ranked higher than the Fourth class.

Daily Vespers is an abbreviated form of Great Vespers and is served on any day that Great Vespers is not appointed. At Daily Vespers, the Small Entrance is usually omitted; there are fewer stikhera inserted in Lord, I have cried unto Thee; and the Litany following the prokeimenon is abbreviated and moved to follow the apolytikion. The service ends with the Little Dismissal.

Small Vespers or Little Vespers is appointed for days when there is to be an All Night Vigil. Small Vespers has no Litany of Peace, no kathisma or Little Litany, nor the Litany of Fervent Supplication, nor the Prayer at the Bowing of the Heads. The only litany there is is toward the end following the apolytikion and only has 4 petitions. Small Vespers also has no more than 4 stichera at "Lord, I Cry", and unlike Great Vespers or Daily Vespers, the variable portions of Small Vespers are never combined from multiple sources (such as a double commemoration of the menaion, or a combination of the menaion with the octoechos).

Order for Great Vespers (not at a Vigil):

3. Great Litany

Vesperal Liturgies: Order of Great Vespers when followed by the Liturgy:

1. Blessed is the Kingdom...
2. O Heavenly King
3. Trisagion, Lord's Prayer
4. Ps. 103
5. Great Litany
6. Lord I Cry
7. Entrance with Gospel
8. O Gladsome Light
9. Prokimenon
10. Lessons from the Old Testament
11. Small Litany
12. Following the Small Litany, the Divine Liturgy begins with the appointed Trisagion (or "As Many as have been Baptized"), followed by Prokimenon, Epistle, Gospel, and the rest of the prescribed Liturgy (on the Evening Vigils for Nativity, Theophany, Holy Friday & Holy Pascha it is the Liturgy of St. Basil; on days in which Annunciation falls upon a Fast Day in Great Lent, however, it is the Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom that is combined with Vespers, and served, not on the evening prior, but on the afternoon which follows and combined with the afterfeast. Note, in Greek and Souther Slavic practice, Annunciation has no fast, and therefore it is not combined with Vespers no matter what, since there is no fast in the morning, but the Liturgy is immediately served even in Great Lent).
13. At the end of the Vesperal Liturgies, in some traditions it is customary to put a candle out and to sing the Apolytikion/Troparion and Kondakion of the Feast. This happens because one peculiar aspect of the Vesperal Liturgy: Whereas Vespers by itself has the Apolytikion (Troparion) of the day that is starting, and the Liturgy by itself has the tropar before the Trisagion, nonetheless when Vespers and Liturgy are combined there is none. This is because the Tropar comes at the end of Vespers which is "replaced" by the Liturgy when the two are combined, and the beginning of Liturgy, where the Tropar usually is, is "replaced" by Vespers, since the Liturgy portion of the Vesperal Liturgy begins with the Trisagion. Thus, so that the Troparial "announcement" of the arrival of the vigil of the Feast would not go unsung, the tradition to say the Tropar and Kondak at the end was developed in some places.

Daily commemorations (Prayers for the day found in Octoechos for a given week):

Stychyry=Stichera, verses

In the case of Troparia and Kondakia to the temple (i.e the church it is sung in), it is to be known that this rubric is only followed when the temple is dedicated to the Mother of God or to one of the Saints unless otherwise noted.

For the sake of consistency with regard to the readings there are 3 columns for most days, one for Prophecy (Old Testament) readings, one for the Epistle, and one for Gospel. The first column for prophecies remains even if there is no prophecy readings called for at any service.

Cf. Prayer Book pp. 301f.

Vespers (served on Tuesday evening), is usual for forefeast Vespers

Matins Is usual for forefeast as in Menaion. Katavasia; "Christ is born..." The first hour is NOT sung at the end of Matins since the Royal Hours are served on this day

Royal Hours, are served in the morning (Typikon suggests 8am) of this day.

Hebrews 1:1-2 Royal Hours - 1st Hour

Matthew 1:18-25 Royal Hours - 1st Hour

Galatians 3:23-29 Royal Hours – 3rd Hour

Luke 2:1-20 Royal Hours – 3rd Hour

Hebrews 1:10-2:3 Royal Hours – 6th Hour

Matthew 2:1-12 Royal Hours – 6th Hour

Hebrews 2:11-18 Royal Hours – 9th Hour

Matthew 2:13-23 Royal Hours – 9th Hour

At all the hours the kondak of the forefeast is chanted. The Priest vested in Phelon, brings the Gospel Book out through the Holy Doors to the middle of the Church and sets it on an analogion. Blessed is our God, etc. The order is set out for the most part in the Menaion. During the reading of the psalms there is s cesning, beginning at the Gospel analogion: At 1st and 9th hours is full censning, at 3rd and 6th is lesser censning. The Psalms are read, then the forefeast tropar; special stykyry are read as appointed. At the 9th hour the final stykyr is sung solemnly, and during its finals words all the clergy and people make 3 bows, polycronion, Glory N&E then stykyr repeated. Deacon/Pr: Wisdom Let us attend! The Prokim is announced by the reader. The same reader reads the Old Testament and Epistle readings. Thereafter the Gospel is read by the Priest. After this, the Gospel is taken into the altar and the Holy Doors and closed and the priest removes his phelon. The prayer of the 9th hour is said, the typika then begin immediately. The dismissal of the day is used.

Vesperal Liturgy (See below)

For those who can bear it in good health, this is a day of strict fast, that is, not eating anything until the afternoon (i.e. until after the breaking of the fast with Communion at the Vesperal Liturgy), which is manifest primarily in the Holy Supper. Of course, there is the continuance of the ascetical fast (from meat, etc.) until after the reception of Communion at the post-matinal festal Liturgy (of John Chrysostom). It should be noted that, although in some places we find the whole day being called the “eve,” that technically the “eve” of Nativity begins with the announcement of its arrival at the Prokeimenon of Vespers.

Jan. 7/Dec. 25 [Thursday] The Nativity according to the Flesh of our Lord

Vespers with Divine Liturgy of St. Basil (served on Wednesday):	Gen 1.1-13; Num 24.2, 3, 5-9, 17, 18; Mic 4.6, 7; 5.2-4; Isa 11.1-10; Bar 3.36-4.4; Dan 2.31-36, 44, 45; Isa 9.6, 7; Isa 7.10-16, 8.1-4, 8-10;	Heb. 1.1-12	Lk 2.1-20
Vigil (Compline&Litiya)			See Matins
Vigil (Matins)			Matt. 1.18-25
Festal Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom		Gal 4.4-7	Mt 2.1-12

Vespers with the Liturgy of St. Basil the Great (served on Wednesday*). Blessed is the man is not sung. Lord I Cry: 8 feast, GloryN&E feast. Entrance is made with Gospel followed by Prokim of the day. The 8 readings are read. After the 3rd reading, the Holy Doors are opened and the reader intones the tropar: “You were born” with its verses, and the choir sings the refrains after each verse; at the end the reader chants the same refrain. The Holy Doors are closed and the readings proceed. After the 6th reading, Holy Doors are opened again and the reader intones the tropar “You have shone” with its verses, and the choir sings a refrain after each verse; at the end the reader chants the same refrain. The Holy Doors are closed and then the final 2 readings are read. Then the Holy Doors are opened and the deacon intones the little litany and priest says exclamation before the Trisagion: “For Holy are You...” and then the Trisagion is sung. The Prokim in the 1st Tone “The Lord said to Me...” Epistle Heb. 1.1-12, Alleluia verses from Menaion in 5th tone, then Gospel Luke 2.1-20. “All of creation rejoices” is sung, the Communion hymn is “Praise the Lord” and the dismissal of the Feast is used. After the dismissal, a candle is lit on a candlestand and placed in the center of the church, and the singers come together in the middle of the temple and all sing the Nativity Tropar, Glory N&E and Nativity Kondak.

* Note, time given by the Typikon for this service to start is sometime after 1pm in the afternoon, although some more ancient versions give 2 or 3 or even as late as 5pm. As we know it has become the common practice today to serve it today in the morning following Royal Hours. A note of interest is that in Bethlehem itself Nativity takes place as follows: On January 6 the Patriarch (of Jerusalem) arrives in manger square at 2pm, a procession takes place followed by Vespers with Liturgy of St. Basil. It ends around 4:30pm after which people go to their homes to eat the Holy Supper. They make sure to end their supper by 8am and begin fasting once more. They return to the Church at around 11pm. At 11:30pm is the Compline with Matins, after which immediately begins the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom around 1am, and this Liturgy ends about 3am.

The Holy Supper traditionally takes place in between the Basil Liturgy and the Compline of the Nativity, that is to say, following the Basil Liturgy and before Compline begins, although we know that it may take place later for pastoral or practical reasons.

Great Compline (Aftersupper) with Litiya and Matins is prescribed, although it has become common in parishes to serve only Compline, and that often in abbreviated form. The entire service is as set forth in the Menaion.

The Festal Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom The time of the beginning of this Liturgy varies greatly in different places, but must not take place before midnight and must begin so late in the morning that it ends after noon. In Bethlehem itself it begins only 5 minutes later than the Liturgy of Pascha, and in Jerusalem 15 minutes later. Throughout Rus-Ukraine it takes place at various times anywhere from midnight to 10am. The Antiphons of the Feast are sung. At the entrance, the Deacon or Priest says the Introit of the Feast. Tropar and Kondak are of the Feast. Instead of Trisagion: “As many as have been baptized...” The Prokeimenon, Epistle, Alleluia, Gospel, and Communion Hymn are of the Feast. Instead of “It is right in truth” we sing the irmos of the second canon of the 9th Ode.

 [**The Jerusalem ordo calls for the celebration of the Divine Liturgy of St. James upon this day (i.e. the Sunday afterfeast of the Nativity--the only other day being the feast of St. James, October 23rd), and this is what is served at Jerusalem to this day on the Sunday after Nativity, as well as a limited number of other places. However, most simply serve the Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, as it was, in common practice eventually deemed too confusing for the people in ordinary parishes and their priests to serve the Liturgy of St. James on the Sunday after Nativity (although, it has become quite common in the old world nations as well as in the “new world” to celebrate it upon October the 23rd).

*Note, in some places the Moleban for New Year is served after Vespers or Matins (Vigil), in others, it is served after Liturgy.

On the eighth day You were circumcised. Praised be Your most noble decision; praised be Your plan of salvation; praised be Your condescension, O You Who are unique in Your love for mankind.” (Troparion of the feast of Circumcision)*

*“Your voice has permeated the entire world which has received your word wherewith you taught in a manner well pleasing unto God; You expounded the nature of existing things, and have adorned the customs of mankind. Thus at the festive Matins service the Katavasia “You have opened the depths...” is chanted until the Leavetaking of the Feast.

Jan 18/5 Day before Theophany:

This is a day of Strict Fast

The serving of the Royal Hours of Theophany is prescribed by the Typikon to take place at about 8am in the morning (in Church time the 2nd hour of the day), although they may be celebrated somewhat later or at their actual times. The priest, vested in phelon, carries the Gospel through the Holy Doors to the center of the temple and places it on the analogion set up there. He exclaims “Blessed is our God...” and the Reader continues “Amen” and the full beginning (as are at “regular” 3rd and 9th hours) is said. At each Hour two special Psalms replace two of the customary Psalms of that Hour. During the reading of the Psalms, the Deacon (Priest) censens in the following manner: At the 1st and 9th Hours a complete censening of the temple; at the 3rd and 6th Hours a small censening only. At each Hour the prescribed order and readings are used according to the Lectionary. At the end of the 9th hour the Priest carries the Holy Gospel back into the Altar through the Holy Doors, closes the doors and removes his phelon. Vespers with Liturgy of St. Basil (Served on Monday): According to the Typikon, this Liturgy is prescribed to be served at 1pm in the afternoon on Monday to end the strict fast that took place all morning (i.e. total fast from all foods) and to inaugurate the vigil of the Feast. However, in one redaction of the Typikon, it allows the Liturgy to start as early as 11am. The strict fast is prescribed all morning until after the Liturgy finishes in the afternoon for those able to bear it in good health.

Customary beginning. Psalm 103, Great Litany; [Note: the first stasis of the first Kathisma may be sung but not the entirety of the first Kathisma] Lord I Cry 8 Stykyry Tone 2: All Feast. GloryN&E...Feast. Entrance with Gospel, Prokim of day and 13 readings (see above). After 3rd reading Holy Doors are opened and singers sing “You who created the word are made manifest I the world to give light to those that sit in darkness. Glory to You who loves mankind” in Tone 5. Chanter reads verses from Ps. 66.1-8. After each verse singers sing last part of the Troparion “to give light to those who sit in darkness...” After Chanter chants “GloryN&E” the singers repeat the entire Tropar. The Holy Doors and closed. The next 3 readings are read. After 6th reading Holy Doors are again opened and singers sing: “In the abundance of Your mercy You have made Yourself manifest to sinners and publicans, O our Savior. In truth where should Your light have shone but upon those who sit in darkness?” in Tone 6. The chanter reads the verses from Psalm 92.1-5 (first two verses read as one). After each verse the singers sing the last part of the Troparion “In truth where should Your light...etc.” After the chanter says “Glory N&E” singers repeat entire Tropar. Holy Doors are again closed. Then the final 7 readings are read. At their conclusion, the Little Litany. Exclamation “For holy are You...” Prokim in Tone 3 “The Lord is my Light and my Salvation! Whom then shall I fear?” Epistle 1 Cor. 10.1-4 and Gospel Luke 3.1-18. Litany Supplication, Vouchsafe, O Lord...” and Litany for the evening. After Litany, Blessing of the waters. Festal Dismissal is used: May He who deigned to be baptized by John in the Jordan for our salvation, Christ our true God...” Clergy go to center of temple where is the icon of the feast and sing in loud voice tropar and kondak of feast. The faithful then partake of the blessed water and Priest departs to bless their homes. [Note, in some places, a holy supper for Theophany is served following Vespers, but this is a practice that has for the most part fallen away].

What time should Vespers be served? “Normal time” for Vespers for this day in some redactions of the Typikon is 1pm (allowing a break and eating in between Liturgy and Vespers) and this is certainly appropriate, although in cases where the Eve falls on a Sunday it is well known that the practice of Pentecost is also utilized here for the sake of economy: Vespers being served after Liturgy with the blessing of the waters immediately following because of travel, etc. With the travel requirements of parishioners it is well known that many due to driving distances in our parish will not be able to go back and forth between home and church three times in two days, and this is why this practice has come about. But otherwise, if this is not a concern, in the old country and here Vespers is served not immediately following Liturgy but rather Liturgy, short break, then Vespers and first sanctification of the waters. Later that evening Great Compline may be sung and forms a Vigil with Matins as set forth in the Menaion (please note, it has become customary in parishes, even when Compline is served, to drop the celebration of Matins altogether, but it is good if some of Matins may also be incorporated).

Morning of Theophany: Cf. Prayer Book pp. 322ff.

Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom is served. All Festal Antiphons are used. Entrance: Wisdom let us attend! Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord! We bless You from the House of the Lord. God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us! Tropar of Feast Glory N&E Kondak of Feast. Instead of Trisagion “As many as have been baptized” is used. Prokim: Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord. God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us” Epistle Titus 2.11-14; 3.4-7 Gospel Matt. 3.13-17. Instead of “It is right in truth” we sing “Magnify O my soul” Irmos of the first festal canon (Ode 9). Communion hymn: The grace of God has appeared for the salvation of all. Alleluia....

After Prayer behind the Amvon, the clergy and faithful if possible process to a nearby body of water (well, river, lake, ice sculpture, etc.) and celebrate the Great Blessing of water. If not, it is blessed again in the Church. Then, upon return to Church “Blessed be the name of the Lord 3x and rest including festal dismissal “Me He who deigned...” All foods permitted.

“At Your baptism in the Jordan, Lord, the worship of the Trinity was made manifest; for the voice of the Father bore You witness and called You His beloved Son, and the Spirit in the form of a dove confirmed the truth of His word. Christ our God Who has revealed Yourself, and enlightened the world, glory to You.” (Troparion of Theophany)

The Second blessing of water takes place, if possible, outdoors, and, as the evening before symbolized bringing the world to Christ and His Church, today’s blessing signifies the bringing of Christ and His Church to the world.

The Order of the Great Sanctification of Water as it takes place in the morning after the Amvon Prayer; the people proceed to in the baptistry or to the Church well if it is open in formal procession (it is common nowadays to simply set up a special water vessel in the center of the temple). The Order of Sanctification begins with the chanting of: “The voice of the Lord...” followed by the order of sanctifying water on Theophany. The order concludes with the chanting of “Blessed be the name of the Lord...3] and the prescribed dismissal. This first sanctification of water serves as a reminder of the practice of baptizing at the evening Liturgy of Theophany Eve. The faithful drink of the blessed water.

There is no “set” way for the blessing of homes and eating at Theophany. If the water is blessed on the Eve (on most years following the Vespertal Liturgy, but on this year following only Vespers since it falls on a Sunday/Monday) the following three are suggested options for how home blessings might take place:

1. The Priest departs to first bless the rectory (if it is near the Church), and then to bless the homes of the faithful, and one of the first homes may honor him with the traditional meal, since he has been fasting.
2. Although having almost completely fallen into disuse in the diaspora, except for monasteries, the following is another option: All the faithful may gather in the church hall for a traditional common meal (“Theophany Holy Supper”), as the monks do (as the Typikon says: “.we light a candlestick in the middle of the temple, and after going to stand before it with the singers, they sing the Troparion of the Feast, Glory, both now, and the Kondakion. And we enter the Hall (Literally “Trapeza”), and we eat with tree-oil (olive oil) and also drink wine.”). The priest may then go and bless homes (the Rectory, if possible, should always be blessed first).
3. Ultimately, any local practice that serves the needs of the parish, the schedule of the Priest, and the cycle of services in the parish, should be followed.

Note: The rite of Forgiveness should be done in all parishes (see notes immediately below). If not done at Vespers, let it be done immediately after Liturgy before the people depart, that the stain of disdain for another may be given up before we begin our Lenten journey.

Great Lent begins on PURE MONDAY February 15/2: The priest should take care that the rite of Forgiveness happens in the parish. If the people are not accustomed to come later, then let it be done at the end of Liturgy on Sunday. Forgiveness from the heart is to be strongly emphasized by all priests to their flocks. The Vespers Service, which brings the period of Pre-Lent to an end and inaugurates the period of Great Lent, is celebrated on the Eve of Pure Monday, that is, served on the eve that follows the Lord’s Day celebration (Sunday afternoon), although some do it at the end of the Divine Liturgy in abbreviated form. At Vespers the Prokimenon “Turn not Your face...” is sung. On this evening and the next five evenings following the Sundays of Great Lent, until Palm Sunday, the Vesper Service calls for an entrance to be made. During the weekdays of Lent, the liturgical services are celebrated as set forth in the Triodion and Menaion. ON DAYS OF PRESANCTIFIEDS OR

VESPERAL LITURGIES, IF POSSIBLE THEY SHOULD BEGIN SO THAT THEY AT LEAST END IN THE AFTERNOON/EVENING. Both services were designed so that it would not begin any later than the first hour of the NIGHT (7pm) nor would it end any earlier than noon (thus the espera, the afternoon/evening time in ancient accounting), thus beginning no earlier than the middle of the 10am hour and no later than 7pm. Of course, if you were pastoring in a town where there were factories in which every person worked from 11am to 9pm, even this rule would bow to pastoral discretion, for the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

The 40 days of Great Lent are days of abstinence from meat, eggs and cheese. The celebration of Matrimonial Coronations [weddings] during Great Lent and Holy Week ARE NOT PERMITTED. As for memorials, the following apply as basic guidelines (again, pastoral considerations may require a departure). Chapter 49 of the Typikon regarding Great Lent: "It is appropriate to know that if a brother of ours departs unto the Lord during these holy days in the middle of the week, his third day is not marked until Friday evening; for then we perform his panakhyda, likewise also on Saturday his Liturgy. On the following Saturday his ninth day is marked whether it coincides or not [i.e. whether the ninth day actually falls on Saturday or not]. His fortieth day is marked when the number of his days is completed. Offerings and his memorial may begin from New Sunday [i.e. St. Thomas Sunday] even until the completion of 40 days." In other words, memorial services are not to be served during the weekdays of Great Lent, but only on Friday evenings and Saturdays (with the exception of Lazarus Saturday and its eve; and when possible, the eve of the Akathyst Saturday when this is observed).

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and Thursday of the First Week of Lent, the Canon of St. Andrew of Crete is celebrated in conjunction with the Great Compline (Aftersupper) Service.

The Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom is celebrated on all Saturdays of Lent. The Liturgy of St. Basil the Great is celebrated on all (1, 2, 3, 4 and 5th) Sundays of Lent; but Palm Sunday, however, is the Liturgy of St. John.

Cf. Prayer Book pp. 222-223.

Before the beginning of Vespers the Priest in phelon transfers the Precious Cross from the Table of Preparation to the Holy Table as prescribed.

Vespers “Lord, I Cry...” 10 stykhyry (Res. 6, Triodion 4). The “Glory...” introduces a stykhyra to the Cross “O, Christ our God...”, then “Now and ever...” Dogmatikon. Apostikha is all Resurrection. Glory N&E is from Triodion. Troparion (Apolytikion): “Lord, save Your people and bless Your inheritance. Grant Victory to Orthodox Christians over their enemies. And by Your Cross preserve Your Community.”

Note: Where Matins are not celebrated, the cross is brought out at Vespers in the following manner: The celebrant incenses the Cross during the chanting of “Lord Now You Let Your Servant depart...” and the introductory prayers; He then carries the Holy Cross in solemn procession to the center of the church, intones, “Wisdom! Let us be attentive,” and places the Holy Cross on the Tetrapod during the singing of “O Lord Save Your people...; The celebrant then incenses the Holy Cross and venerates it during the singing of “Before Your cross...” Vespers are then concluded with the prescribed great dismissal.

Matins, after the “God is the Lord...”, the Resurrection Troparion for the Sunday is sung twice, followed by “Glory...” O Lord Save Your people...” and “Now and ever...” and Resurrectional Bohorodychnyj. Blessed art Thou and the rest as usual. After the Great Doxology, at the singing of the final, “Holy God...”, the Priest, fully vested carries the Cross to the Center of the Church and places it on the tetrapod (or analog), where it is venerated. During the veneration of the Cross, the choir sings the appointed hymns from the Triodion.

Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great. Troparia: Resurrection, Cross, Glory N&E Cross. Instead of the usual Trisagion: “Before Your Cross we bow down, Master and Your Holy Resurrection we glorify.” The Prokimenon is: “O Lord Save Your people and bless Your inheritance.” Koinonikon: “The light of Your countenance.” The dismissal for all services from Sunday to Thursday of this week includes the addition: “by the power of the precious and life-giving Cross...”

Fourth Week of Great Lent (Holy Cross Week)

During this week, on Monday & Wednesday at the First Hour and on Friday after the dismissal of the Sixth Hour we venerate the Precious Cross according to the following order: The Priest in phelon preceded by the Deacon in sticharion with a candle and censer go out through the open Holy Gates to the Cross in the middle of the church. The Deacon gives the censer to the Priest, and then the Priest and the Deacon cense the Cross on all four sides, thrice. The Priest returns the censer to the Deacon, who censes the Priest 3x. Then the clergy sing “Before Thy Cross...” 3x, which is also repeated by the people 3x. Meanwhile, the Priest makes two prostrations in front of the Cross and kisses it, after which he makes a third prostration. The Cross is next venerated by the Deacon and then by all the Faithful, each making two prostrations before kissing the Cross and the third after. During the veneration, the people sing “Come Faithful...” and the other stichera appointed at the veneration of the Cross on the preceding Sunday.

Mar. 26/13 Friday The period of Great Lent comes to a Conclusion.

(note: although the the current service books, as of the 16th century have the Triodion now divided into two parts based upon ascetical fasting and feasting, the original was a single volume in which Holy Week was counted as the “Vigil” part of the Flowery or Resurrection period, whereas now it is part of the Lenten Triodion, the Flowery Triodion having been modified to equal the 16th century printed Venetian “Pentecostarian”. Nonetheless, theologically the end of the Lenten period is at Vespers (Presanctified) on the eve of Lazarus Saturday just prior to the Entrance. Because this whole week is seen as one continuous vigil period, we keep the ascetical fast as prescribed until the end of the Vigil on Pascha.

According to the 49th Chapter of the Typikon, from Vespers-Presanctified on this day (served on Wednesday): “It is appropriate [for all] to know that the Litya for the reposed in the narthex is not served until Thomas Sunday.”

Vespers with Presanctified Liturgy (Served on Wednesday) Readings: Job 2.1-10 and Gospel Matthew 26.6-16 (the reading for the anointing of the Lord with oil). Note: Because some of the Odes for Matins from Wednesday, and especially since Holy Thursday is inaugurated with the Vespereal entrance followed by the reading for the Gospel of the anointing of the Lord’s feet with oil, with mention of the anointing also being mentioned in Matins of Holy Thursday for the washing of the feet, so also it has been handed down to us to serve the Service of Anointing on Wednesday, sometimes in conjunction with Matins..

Matins (sung on Wednesday night or Thursday morning) Because the Typikon prescribes Matins to begin at the 7th hour of the night (i.e. 1am in the morning), parishes may either move it to earlier in the night or somewhat later in the morning (but earlier than usual). At Matins, there are no Kathysmy (Psalm readings), and there is no singing of the Magnificat. The exapostilarion Thy bridal chamber is sung 2x Glory N&E then 1x. Apostikha all Triodion.

The Hours: (Thursday morning) Are not sung with Lenten verses with prostrations but rather, at the First Hour the Tropar “The glorious disciples.” We use the Kondak form the Triodion “The Traiter takes the bread...” and likewise the appointed Troparia and Kondakia for the day at all the Hours.

Vesperal Liturgy of St. Basil the Great (commemorating the Mystical Supper) For selections for the Vesperal Liturgy cf. Prayer Book pp233-235.

Time of Service: The Sabbas Typikon prescribes that the call to Vesperal Liturgy begin around 2pm (“the 8th hour of the day”) on Holy Thursday afternoon/eve of Good Friday (which means it begins between 2 and 3pm) although in ancient Rus, Constantinople, and old Jerusalem, it began as late as 6pm (Although it was always served at an earlier time than that of Holy Saturday, since that is the latest Vesperal Liturgy of the year). As always pastoral discession is at hand for what is best for the parish. Despite the ordinance for its service in the afternoon, it is commonly served beginning in the late morning in our modern day, although in such a case it should begin late enough that the Liturgy ends in the afternoon. The first part of this service belongs to Holy Thursday and brings it to a Liturgical conclusion, whereas after the Prokeimenon, the inauguration of Holy Friday begins. As we know, the Mystical Supper itself took place after the evening light had appeared on Thursday, making it the first act of sacrifice for Holy and Great Friday by our Lord. The order is as follows:

Order of Service: Blessed is the Kingdom, Come Let us worship... Ps. 103, Litany of Peace. “Lord I Cry” [Proskomedia Note: If possible, that is to say if there is a deacon or second priest to do the censuring, the Proskomedia is done during the “Lord I Cry,” but otherwise is done before the start of the service. At this Liturgy an additional Lamb “Ahnec” is prepared and consecrated for distribution to the sick during the year.]

At “Lord I Cry” Stykhyry—5 from the preparatory Lauds at Matins (repeat 2x to make 10 total if Proskomedia is done at this time to give Priest enough time to complete), Glory N&E 6th Tone “Judas is truly to be numbered...” The Holy Gospel is carried at the Entrance. In place of the customary Cherubic hymn, the Troparion, “Of Your Mystical Supper...” is sung, usually with a distinct melody from that used on common Sundays. Instead of “All of Creation rejoices” we sing “Come faithful let us enjoy the Master’s hospitality: the banquet of immortality...” Koinonikon: “Of Your Mystical Supper.”

**Note: The washing of feet is prescribed to be performed, although it is often not done in modern practice. In parishes and monasteries, the “Office of the Divine and Sacred Washing” is used from the Great Trebnik. The rubrics are as follows “The Rector (i.e. ordained Priest) exits fully vested...responsible members of the brethren (in male monastery unordained monks, in convent nuns, in parish people) are chosen by the Rector to be washed, among whom must be the Warden (lit. “Doorkeeper”) and the Steward (equivalent to one of the senior “parish council officers” of our day).” The rubrics in the Trebnik refer to the service in a parish, where the Warden represents Peter. However, in a monastery, the Steward rather than the Warden ranks directly after the Superior, and thus, although in the parish the Warden represents Peter, in the monastery the Steward represents Peter. In Cathedral churches (or any church) where the Order of the Washing of feet is celebrated by the Eparchial Bishop the “Office of the Divine and Sacred Washing when performed by a Bishop and Twelve Priests” may be used. The ancient Rusyn practice, as found in the Kyivan St. Sophia Typikon of St. Alexis Studite, prescribes that the footwashing takes place before Liturgy (as was also the practice of the Great Church), whereas most versions of the Trebnik passed down to us today have it prescribed following the prayer behind the Amvon.*

Dismissal “May He who by His transcendant love showed us the most excellent way of humility by washing the disciples’ feet and accepting the Cross and Burial, Christ our true God...” (Note: if Compline is said prior to Matins this is the dismissal that is also used for Compline).

Matins—the service of the 12 Passion Gospels

Time of service: In the two most current revisions of the Sabbas Typikon, this service is to begin “about the second hour of the night” (between 8 and 9pm), making it the earliest prescribed Matins of the year (of course, it assumes that it ends after midnight, that is to say in the morning). In ancient Rus, it was prescribed that “Matins is struck at the end of the third hour of the night” so that it might begin at the 4th hour of the night (i.e. 10pm, from St. Sophia Typikon 1136, 13th century). In 11th Century Constantinople, Matins was served at its usual time in the morning. On a pastoral level, it should begin no earlier than 7pm (“the first hour of the night”) and no later than 8am the following morning (“the second hour of the day”), unless there is great necessity to do so.

The order of service is as follows: Slava Sviati, Hexapsalmos, Litany, Alleluias with verses the tropar in 8th tone “The glorious disciples...” (2x) Glory N&E (3rd time). During the singing of the tropar the Priest, vested in Phelon brings the Gospel to the center of the church and censes the altar and the entire church. Candles may be distributed to the Faithful, and Matins proceeds as prescribed. If it be the custom at each reading a bell is rung as many times as there have been readings (i.e. after the 2nd Gospel is rang 2x, 3rd Gospel 3x, 12th Gospel 12x). Also, in some places, the color of Vestments is changed at each reading. In between the readings are the prescribed Antiphons, Litanies, sessional hymns and censings. The dismissal, “May He Who endured spitting and scourging, the Cross and Death, for the salvation of the world, Christ Christ our true God...”

Friday Morning—The Royal Hours of the Crucifixion According to the Typikon, the Royal Hours if served all together, may be served “about the 2nd hour of the day” (i.e. about 8am), but may begin any time up through midday. Why is 8am suggested? Assuming that the Hours are chanted slowly and solemnly, the First Hour would transpire from 8am to 9am. The 3rd Hour, which contains the reading from St. Mark, which states that Christ was crucified at about “the third hour of the day” (i.e. 9am), would actually take place at 9am or during the 9am hour. The entirety would end around midday and the monks (remember, the Sabbas Typikon was originally formulated for a monastery) would rest before Vespers and the long night ahead.

The Royal Hours may also be served without aggregation at their appointed hours: 1st, 3rd, 6th and 9th hours (7am, 9am, noon, and 3pm). The ancient Rusyn Typikon of St. Sophia (13th c.) prescribes the first Royal Hour may be read at the end of Matins but that “the other Hours are sung at their proper times” (i.e. at 9am, Noon, and 3pm). The Royal Hours were also read at their proper times in (non-monastic) Jerusalem practice.

In Jerusalem itself, in the modern day, the Royal Hours are served altogether beginning at 9:30am. There is a procession from the Praetorium (Convent of the imprisonment of Jesus) along the via dolorosa to the Church of the Resurrection (Holy Sepulchre) in which they ascend Golgotha and complete the Hours there. It ends in the afternoon followed by adoration of the cross at the place of crucifixion until the time of Vespers.

These Royal Hours of our Lord’s Passion are attributed to the Venerable Cyril, Patriarch of Alexandria. The priest brings out the Gospel and places it on a stand before the Crucifix in the center of the church. After the Hours come to a close, the dismissal is given: “May He who endured fearful sufferings...” before the closed Holy Doors.

Vespers (sung on Friday) commemorating the death and removal from the Cross of our Savior is celebrated as set forth in the Lenten Triodion, on the eve of the Great and Holy Sabbath, and is celebrated about the 10th hour of the day (4pm). The Holy Shroud [Plaschanytsya, Epitaphios] prior to the service is placed on the Holy Table and on top of it the Book of the Gospels (later to be carried around the Temple in solemn procession and placed in the center of the Temple for veneration). Compline with the Canon of the Lamentation is celebrated while the faithful are venerating the Holy Shroud, especially in monasteries or in very large parishes. Compline is accomplished simply as prescribed for Holy Saturday yet with the Kondakion and Prokimenon of the Annunciation. [Note, this service is rarely served in parish practice]

Matins The celebration of “Jerusalem” Matins (which is set in the Typikon for the middle of the night around 1am, may be celebrated after Vespers Friday night or on Saturday morning) commemorates the entombment of Our Savior. At the conclusion of the Great Doxology, “Glory to God in the highest...” the Holy Shroud is carried around the Temple in solemn procession during the singing of “Holy God...” The prescribed Prokimenon, and Readings from the Old and New Testaments and the Triple Ektenia conclude the service.

For selections from the Vesperal Liturgy cf. Prayer Book pp235-237.

The Vesperal Liturgy of St. Basil the Great (sung on Saturday), also known as the first proclamation of the Resurrection or simply “First Resurrection,” is prescribed to begin by the Typikon in the late afternoon. The Typikon reads as follows: "At the 10th hour of the day (4pm), we clap on the great one (great simandron or bell), [all leave their cells and make their way to the temple] and after we gather together into the Temple, the Priest and Deacon vest, and after the Priest has given the blessing, we begin Vespers, uttering, ‘O heavenly King.’” This would mean that the Vesperal Liturgy begins at about 4:30 or 5pm, given that the bell rings at 4pm, giving the Priest, Deacon, and brethren time to come forth from their cells, assemble in the temple, and giving the Priest and Deacon time to vest and prepare. [Note: ancient variations of the Typikon have the call to come to the service at beginning of the 11th hour (5pm), cf. The Rusyn Alexian Typikon of Novhorod-St. Sophia 1136, while others such as Evergetis have it “end of the 11th hour”--i.e. 6pm--and one of the ancient typika recommends that it begin at the very end of the day—the 1st hour of the night, which would begin at 7pm. Thus the broader Ordo of the Church has it beginning some time between 4pm and 7pm. In Jerusalem itself it begins after the Holy Fire, thus some time between 3pm and 6pm, depending on how late the fire comes. As we know, the modern tendency is to serve it earlier, beginning in the late morning or around noon].

Vestment colors: In common North-Slavic practice the service begins in dark (dark purple or black) and changes to white prior to the Great Prokimen “Arise O God” (sung instead of Alleluias). In common “South-Slavic,” Greek, Middle-Eastern and African practice the service begins in white vestments. The South Slavic/Greek practice recalls that in ancient times the baptism of the catechumens happened during the Old Testament readings of this Liturgy, whereas the north Slavic practice shows that the first part of the service belongs liturgically to Holy Saturday and brings it to the solemn close, whereas the second part of the service belongs to Pascha. It is interesting to note a “middle” practice from the 12th century in the (Sabbaitic) Evergetis Typikon, where a few Priests who would be performing Baptisms during the readings would be vested in white, while the other Priests would vest in dark and all would be changed to white by the “Arise O God.”

Order of service: “Blessed is the Kingdom,” “Come let us worship,” Psalm 103, Great Litany. [Note: If possible the Proskomedia is done at Lord I Cry, but otherwise before the service begins]. 8 Stychyry at “Lord I Cry” then Glory, “The great Moses...” N&E Dogmatik in Tone 1: “Let us praise the Virgin...” The Gospel Book is carried and the Entrance is made. 15 Old Testament Readings follow the Entrance. In place of the usual “Holy God...” the Baptismal Troparion, “As many as have been baptized...” is sung. There are two Prokimena at this Liturgy—one before the Epistle and the “Great Prokimenon of the Resurrection” (Arise O God) in place of the Alleluias. At this time the celebrant, if not having already done so, should revest in bright vestments, and rest for the Liturgy of St. Basil follows. The usual Cherubic hymn is replaced with “Let all mortal flesh keep silence...” The “Weep not for me, mother...” is sung instead of “It is truly right...” The Koinonikon: The Lord has awoken as if from sleep, and did rise saving us, Alleluia.” The blessing of 5 loaves of bread, figs and fruit follow the Amvon Prayer, but without oil.

Dismissal: The Typikon instructs that we use the dismissal “for the Lord’s Day,” i.e. the Sunday resurrectional dismissal (“May He who is Risen from the dead, Christ our true God, through the intercessions...etc.). It is incorrect and is a modern innovation to use the daily dismissal “May Christ our true God” without mentioning the Resurrection in the dismissal (although we do not add “trampling down death...” to it until the midnight Matins and Liturgy). From this point until the end of the 40 days we add “by the Power of the precious and life creating cross” before appealing to the intercessions of the Holy Apostles. Notice the dismissal is “May He who is Risen” in the present tense, not “He who Rose” in the past tense. This is true throughout the year.

Notes: The Typikon states the following after the dismissal of the Vespereal Basil Liturgy: After the Dismissal the blessed bread is distributed by the Priest. Then there takes place the blessing of bread, wine, and fruit. The Ecclesiarch should be careful that the Liturgy end by the second hour of the night (i.e. the 8pm hour). After the Dismissal we do not leave the Church, but sit in our places, and the Cellarer comes in and distributes to the Brethren a slice of bread and six dates or figs [or some sort of fruit of like kind] and a beaker of wine. When we have finished there begins the great reading of the Acts of the Apostles, which *begins as such: The reader says “The Book of the Acts of the Holy and All-laudable Apostles” and the Priest says “Through the intercessions of our Fathers the Saints Lord Jesus Christ our God have mercy on us.” The people say Amen, and the Reader begins to read, until it is time for Nocturnes. When we have reached the moment, the Lamplighter lights all the lamps of the Temple, and goes out and strikes the simandron. The reader stops and we begin the Pannychida [i.e. the Nocturne odes] as follows... [The modern Russian Typikon offers a different version where they exit to the Trapeza and eat there] It is important to realize that all Vespereal services, be they Presanctifieds or one of the three Vespereal Liturgies of St. Basil, are designed to take place after noon (if they are to begin in the morning, it should be late morning so that they at least end after noon). It is also important to realize that the modern practice of serving St. Basil Liturgy early on Saturday morning obscures the entire service and its place in the festal cycle, and contradicts the instructions of the Typikon. Although it begins at the Liturgical end of Holy Saturday, after the Prokimenon it is officially Pascha.*

[Strictly speaking, the Vespereal Liturgy of St. Basil is the beginning of an ancient Vigil that went from about 5pm to 1pm with a feast following, the “Trapeza occurring about midnight” (89th Canon of the 6th Council). St. Nikodemos reports that in his opinion this meant that the Liturgy began at midnight and that the actual end of Liturgy and cessation of fasting came about at the end, not the beginning, of the midnight hour: “about midnight, the sixth hour passing and the seventh (i.e. 1pm) beginning” (Rudder Interpretation of 89th of 6th Council). Most now tend to wait to begin Matins at midnight, thus making Liturgy begin later and the cessation of the fast around 2 or 3am.]

Antiapodeipnon—the Reading of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles begins a short time after the end of the St. Basil Liturgy (8pm or later) and the Reader says “the reading from the Acts of the Holy and All Laudable Apostles” and the priest replies: “Through the prayers of the Holy and All Laudable Apostles O Lord Jesus Christ our God have mercy on us.”

Paschal Nocturnes: According to the Typikon, the Book of Acts should be read from the end of the St. Basil Liturgy “until the 4th hour of the night” (i.e. 10pm), and at that point Nocturnes (aka the Midnight office or Mesonyctics) is to begin. *(*It should be noted that in modern practice many start the midnight office a little later, such as 11pm or even 11:30pm).* The Priest, according to the Typikon, is to be “vested in full bright (white or mostly white) vestments.” Within the midnight office, after the 3rd and 6th odes, Paschal readings are prescribed (this is often done in parish practice). [Note: Interestingly enough, middle Sabbas and Constantinopolitan practice was to not have any canon and to have the Paschal readings of the Fathers instead! Cf. in particular the Evergetis Synaxarion. Other than that, it was the normal Sunday Canon for Nocturnes, although since the time of the adoption of the Venetian texts of the Pentecostarian at the time of the printing press, it has been replaced by the Holy Saturday Matins Canon]

Shroud removal: With regard to the Shroud removal (Plaschanitsya), the Typikon is silent, but based upon recorded approved practice throughout Rus in the last several centuries, the removal of the Shroud may take place at one of three times: 1. during the Jerusalem Matins at “Weep not for me.” This certainly predates the removal at Nocturnes. 2. at the “Weep not for me” when it is repeated at Nocturnes (which is the most common practice of the modern North Slavic practice); and 3. at the Liturgy (Entrance) of St. Basil, as was custom at the Great Lavra and several other churches of prominence throughout Rus for many years. Although Matins or the St. Basil Liturgy may be the “most appropriate place” for the moving of the shroud to the Altar, the Russian practice (and Ukrainian adoption) of removing it at Paschal Nocturnes came about because of how poorly Matins and Basil were attended (particularly once Basil Liturgy in popular practice began to be celebrated in the morning rather than at its appointed time). In the case of the taking in at Nocturnes, the celebrant incenses the Holy Shroud, removes it from its tomb, carries it into the Holy of Holies via the Holy Doors, places it on the Holy Table and closes the Holy Doors. The Deacon may intone the triple ektenia.

Dismissal: “May He who is Risen from the dead, Christ our true God...” All lights are extinguished at this point, except one lamp in the sanctuary.

Directly following Nocturnes is the Procession, Matins, Paschal hours and the Festal Liturgy of Pascha with prayers of St. John Chrysostom.

The Paschal circumambulation of the temple begins immediately following Nocturnes “about the middle of the night,” with the chanting of “Your Resurrection, O Christ our Savior...” This may be done once or thrice according to custom.

Resurrection Matins: The Troparion, “Christ is risen.... bestowing life” and its verses are chanted on the porch or in the narthex. The celebrant leads the congregation into the nave of the Church. The Paschal Canon, the work of St. John of Damascus is sung joyfully and concludes with a reading of the Paschal Homily of St. John Chrysostom, followed by the completion of Matins and the Hours of Pascha.

The Festal Liturgy of Pascha (cf. Prayer Book pp. 238ff) with prayers of St. John Chrysostom immediately follows the Paschal Matins and Hours with the order of service as follows: Blessed is the Kingdom, Christ is risen from the dead... 3x. The priest says the verses and the people respond by singing Tropar “Christ is Risen from the dead...” after each verse, finishing with Priest singing first half of Tropar, people 2nd half. Psalms 65, 66 and 67 comprise Paschal antiphons I, II and III. At Entrance Priest: “Wisdom Let us attend! Bless God the Lord in the Churches, O you who are of Israel’s fountain!” Paschal Troparion, Hypakoe, Glory N&E Kondak. “As many as have been baptized into Christ...” replaces “Holy God...” The readings as appointed. The Hymn to the Birthgiver “The Angel Cried” is sung. The Troparion “Christ is risen...” is sung in place of “Blessed is He...”, “We have seen...” “Let our mouths be filled...” and “Blessed is the name of the Lord...” Closing: Clergy: Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death Response: “And upon those in the tombs bestowing life” Priest: May He who is Risen from the dead trampling...” then 3x “Christ is Risen response: “Indeed (truly) He is Risen! Then Troparion 3x then “And unto us he has granted eternal life, let us venerate His Resurrection on the 3rd day.” All the doors of the iconostas remain open through Bright week. At the completion of the Liturgy the Artos is blessed and distributed the following Saturday (it is used as the icon on the tetrapod through Bright week, and usually has an icon of the Resurrection for a cover), and following that there is the blessing and partaking of the Paschal food by the Faithful.

Agape Vespers (See below)

* In those instances when the Eucharistic Liturgy cannot be celebrated, the Obednitsa may be celebrated as follows: Blessed is our God....Christ is risen.... Thrice. “Having beheld the resurrection...” once, “When those who from Mary came...” Glory... Holy Spirit. “Even though...”, Now and ever... “Onlybegotten Son and Word of God...”, The Beatitudes (Some do 3rd Paschal Antiphon). After the Beatitudes the celebrant intones, Wisdom! The reader chants, “A reading from...” and then reads the appropriate Epistle reading. The celebrant then reads the Gospel. This is followed by “Remember us, O Lord... is then taken, followed by “The heavenly choir...” “I believe in one God...”, “Forgive, pardon and remit, O Lord...” At this point the “Our Father...” is taken, followed by the Kondak “Although You did descend...”, Glory...now and ever...” introduces the Bohorodychnyj-Theotokion, “Sanctified from on High....”, Lord, have mercy [40] followed by “One is holy, One is Lord, Jesus Christ, for the glory of God the Father. Amen. In stead of “Blessed be the name of the Lord....”, “Christ is risen...” is taken thrice, according to the Typikon, Psalm 33 is not read throughout Pascha, thus “Having beheld the Resurrection” with all the Paschal/Eucharistic verses.

*Note, in some places (in Ukraine, Russian and elsewhere) where there is a Priest and need, when the Liturgy has been celebrated at midnight, the more full version of “Pro-Liturgy” is celebrated later in the morning, but only provided that the Bishop gives his approval.

Saturday of Bright Week

At the Liturgy of Bright Saturday, the prayer prescribed for the breaking of the Artos is said following the Amvon prayer. The Artos is distributed following Liturgy. In ancient times not only the Holy Doors and Deacons’ doors on the Iconostas, but also the Royal doors from the Narthex to the Nave (i.e. not the Holy Doors into the Altar, but the Doors into the Nave) were left opened during this week. On Bright Saturday, the Royal Doors (from the narthex to the Nave) would be shut as well as the Deacon doors, but the Holy Doors would remain opened until the Leavetaking. Later, with a confusion of the meaning of “Royal Doors” in certain of the Slavic Churches, it became practice to close all the doors of the Iconostas prior to the 9th Hour. Part of the reason for this is that many temples in the past few centuries were built without any Royal Doors altogether, and in some cases built without a narthex. Thus, the term was interpreted to mean “Holy Doors” and hence the confusion of meaning. However, it should be noted, that whenever a temple does not have Royal Doors from the narthex to the nave, that the central doors into the temple itself would function for this in the rubrics, such as on Pascha, the “Glory” of Matins would begin outside the Church before the doors of the temple.

Cf. Prayer Book pp. 251ff.

Liturgical services are governed by the PTr. and Menaion. At the Vesper Service an entrance is called for. At Matins, “Having beheld the resurrection of Christ...” Precedes Psalm 50. Two Canons are taken, one written by Kyr Theophan and the other by Kyr Andrew of Crete. “More honorable... is not sung. The Great Doxology is sung followed by the Troparion of Mid-Pentecost.

At the Liturgy, the Antiphons are the usual “Bless the Lord, O my soul.... Praise the Lord, O my soul.... The Paschal “The Angel...” and “Shine Shine...” Is replaced with the Irmos from the Matins Service, “It is foreign for mothers...” which is sung until the Final Day of Mid-Pentecost. “Whoever eats my flesh...” is the Communion Hymn. Water is sanctified after the Liturgy according to the Lesser Blessing of Water.

This day is called mid-Pentecost because the entirety of the 50 days from Pascha to Pentecost is called the season of Pentecost. The first 40 days of this we call the 40 days of Pascha, or Paschaltide. Thus, you will often see in the Fathers St. Thomas Sunday referred to as “the second Sunday of Pentecost,” and equally it is termed “the Second Sunday of Pascha” because the first 40 days of the 50 days is referred to thusly. But it is important to realize when the Fathers speak of the “50 days” or the “days of Pentecost,” quite frequently they are referring, not to the days after Pentecost, but the 50 days in between Pascha and Holy Trinity, which the Day of Pentecost (the 50th day) is the crown and completion.
